

Mt Fyans Wind Farm Planning and development

Community and stakeholder engagement

Meetings with landholders commence

Project announced

First public information sessions held

Community Engagement Committee established

Launch of Visual Screening Program for neighbours

Residents near the wind farm invited to speak to the project team

Launch of Community Benefit Fund

Planning application on display for public

2008

2017

2018

2020

2022

2023

Project planning and development

Site identification and project development begins

Victorian Government determined an Environment Effects Statement was not required for the project

Environmental surveys and design

Planning application submitted

Project referred to EPBC act and further environmental studies undertaken

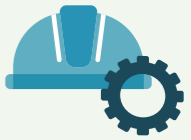

Submit planning application to Victorian Government

Receive decision on project approval

Grid connection agreement developed

Appoint contractor